M² Участок:

Описание:Large commercial premises for sale on the corner, located a stone s throw from the new promenade of Estepona, in an area with great projection and easy access. It has more than 165 m² built and a versatile layout that allows it to be adapted to multiple projects or combine commercial and warehouse-garage use. Two independent entrances, one of them automatic for vehicles. Space divided between a conditioned area with a bathroom and another raw part, ideal for customizing according to the needs of your activity. Thanks to its entrance for vehicles, its corner of two streets and its proximity to the seafront, it is a very interesting option both for a business with customer service, studio, office or showroom, as well as for those who need loading, storage or vehicle storage space.
