Overview: Great luxurious villa in Benalmadena, which benefits from panoramic sea views. If you want to live the "dolce vita" on the Costa del Sol, it is the home of your dreams! Apart from being cozy and modern, it is bright and very pleasant all year round thanks to its south orientation. It is located in an exclusive urbanization and is only 1000 meters from the beach and its chiringuitos. Perfect also for a family considering that some of the best international schools like the British college, are located in the area. Easy access to Malaga Capital and airport either by the highway or the train. It has a separate apartment with kitchen, living room, bathroom and 1 bedroom adjoining the main house that generates an approximate income of € 14,000 per year with Air B & B.
