Overview: Beautiful Townhouse located within a five minute walk to an abundance of restaurants, tapas bars and shops. It is in a gated community at the start of the village. Mijas is a beautiful village, with old cobbled streets and many places of interest, including old churches; museums; bars and restaurants, with authentic Spanish tapas served in many. There is gated access to the small urbanization with easy access to bus route. The south facing Townhouse offer 4-bedrooms on 2 levels with private lift and has panoramic views of the valley and mountains beyond, stretching to the sea. All the terraces (3) have an un-obstructed view of the wonderful mountains all the way down to the sea. From the sun terrace off the master bedroom you have a private and idyllic sun bathing location. The community pool (5m x 3m) is set in a lovely garden; the pool is fenced and has toilets and showers. The lounge has access to a terrace overlooking the Andalusian hills and sea and steps going up to the roof terrace with barbecue area. The open plan kitchen is modern and fully equipped. The master bedroom is spacious and has a king size bed and air conditioning. There is an ensuite bathroom and a very spacious walking dressing. Parking place and private lift! A must see!
