Overview: An elegant traditional villa located on one of the most prestigious roads within Sierra Blanca. The villa is built on a private level plot offering panoramic sea views across to Africa and Gibraltar. As you enter the villa on a private at the end of the cul-de-sac, through the private gates, you are greeted with a grand entrance with ample parking for multiple cars and a carport at the end for 2-3 cars. Once you enter the property you are greeted with grandeur from the high ceilings and open entrance hall leading onto the lounge area with vaulted ceilings and floor to ceiling windows. On the ground floor you have an additional 2 bedrooms with bathrooms and a separate kitchen. Up the stairs you have the entire first floor being occupied by the opulent master bedroom suite with windows looking directly out to the ocean and a large terrace of over 40m². On each side of the bedroom there are separate his and hers walk in bathrooms and in the centre lies the ensuite bathrooms. On the lower basement floor you will find an additional 2 further bedrooms and an exquisite cinema room for sitting down at the end of the day and watching a movie with the family. The property boasts one of the most sought after plots within Sierra Blanca and this home is not one to miss out a viewing on.
