Overview: A large townhouse in lower Calahonda with sensational panoramic sea views, located walking distance to amenities and the blue flag beaches of Calahonda. The house is bright and fresh throughout and has been well maintained by its current owners. It consists of, on the entrance level, entrance hall, large lounge diner with feature fireplace, independent fully fitted kitchen, full bathroom with shower and storage cupboard. The lounge gives access to a sunny south facing terrace with amazing views over pretty Andalusian rooftops and down to the sea. Moving upstairs we find two double bedrooms both with fitted wardrobes and another full bathroom. The master bedroom has its own private terrace where the views are even better than the terrace below, whilst the second bedroom also has its own terrace which gets sun later in the day. On the basement level is a one bedroom apartment with ensuite shower-room, perfect for guests, friends and family. Additional features include hot and cold air conditioning, double glazing and high speed fibre optic internet. The property is located in a quiet street in lower Calahonda and enjoys the use of a beautiful communal swimming pool and pretty lawned gardens as well as communal parking. Offered for sale fully furnished.
