Overview: A delightful top floor apartment in a sought after development in Riviera del Sol located just 100 meters to bars and restaurants and under five minutes stroll to the beach. The property has been very well maintained by the current owner and features a spacious lounge-diner, fully fitted kitchen with serving hatch through to the lounge, two double bedrooms both with fitted wardrobes and a recently renovated bathroom with large walk in shower. The lounge gives access to a sunny south west facing terrace complete with built in barbecue which enjoys views over the communal swimming pool and down to the sea. The complex is gated and secure with lovely manicured gardens and pool area and benefits from low community fees, The community itself is very well well run and consist of only 24 properties which don't come up for sale very often. A gem of a property that must be viewed!
