Overview:

Luxury Realty proudly presents a distinctive investment prospect in Cancelada, Estepona, Southern Spain. This middle-floor apartment, located within the esteemed La Vaguada residential development, offers a rare opportunity for discerning investors to acquire an asset with significant long-term appreciation potential in one of the Costa del Sol's most dynamic and desirable locales.

A Unique Investment Proposition with Strategic Pricing

This property is offered with an occupancy status, a factor meticulously considered in its strategic pricing, presenting a unique advantage for those seeking a below-market entry point focused on future value realization. The listed price reflects the current occupied condition; a reassessment would occur if it becomes vacant prior to public deed formalization. This calculated acquisition positions investors to benefit from the inherent value of the location and the property's future potential.

Due to these unique circumstances, interior viewings are not feasible. Photographs are for illustrative purposes of the development's character, not the specific interior condition, ensuring discretion and transparency aligned with strategic investment parameters.
