The kitchen is fully equipped with modern appliances and premium finishes, catering to both culinary enthusiasts and those who appreciate effortless functionality.

Sophisticated Design & Layout

The main residence features three bright and generously sized bedrooms, each fitted with bespoke built-in wardrobes, offering ample storage and a clean aesthetic. The contemporary finishes extend to two full bathrooms, which have been completely updated with high-quality materials, ensuring a spa-like experience. Premium flooring flows throughout the apartment, complemented by energy-efficient LED lighting and new carpentry, creating a harmonious and elegant atmosphere. The well-organized spaces are designed to maximize comfort and utility, providing a tranquil haven to unwind after a day by the sea.

The Versatile Independent Studio: A Unique Advantage

A truly distinguishing feature of this property is its fully independent studio apartment, offering separate access from the main home. This autonomous living space is a rare find and provides exceptional versatility. Complete with its own kitchen and bathroom, it is an ideal solution for a multitude of needs. Imagine generating significant rental income through holiday lets, providing a private and comfortable suite for visiting friends and family, or creating the perfect home office away from the main living area.
