Playa de Guadalobón, Estepona's serene western beach, is a true hidden gem. Celebrated for its golden sands, crystal-clear Mediterranean waters, and a family-friendly shallow entry, it promises a tranquil retreat away from the crowds. This unique stretch of coastline, approximately 2,500 meters long, benefits from the picturesque confluence of the Guadalobón river with the sea, creating a distinctive urban-wetland environment. The result is a natural landscape of open horizons and a refreshing sea breeze, ideal for peaceful strolls, sunbathing, and enjoying the unblemished beauty of nature. Unlike busier resorts, Guadalobón maintains a serene ambiance with occupancy rates typically between 30-70% even during peak summer months, ensuring a sense of exclusivity and calm.

This meticulously designed 79 m² apartment, positioned on the desirable 4th floor and easily accessible via elevator, faces west, ensuring an abundance of natural light and spectacular sunset views from its private terrace and balcony. Air conditioning throughout guarantees year-round comfort, adapting to the warm Andalusian climate. Beyond the private confines of the apartment, residents benefit from exceptional communal facilities, including a refreshing swimming pool and lush gardens, creating a resort-like ambiance ideal for relaxation and leisure.

The thoughtful design emphasizes both functionality and aesthetic appeal, making the most of every square meter. From the bright interiors to the breathtaking coastal vistas, every detail contributes to an elevated living experience. The private outdoor spaces, the terrace and balcony, serve as perfect vantage points for enjoying the captivating evening skies and the soothing sounds of the waves, truly maximizing the allure of a frontline beach location.

The location of this property is truly exceptional, offering a harmonious blend of peaceful beachside living and immediate access to urban conveniences. A massive, easily accessible parking lot directly at the entrance ensures stress-free arrivals for residents and guests. While enjoying the quietude of its beach-front setting, the apartment remains incredibly well-connected. Estepona's vibrant city center, often referred to as 'The Garden of the Costa del Sol' due to its beautifully adorned streets and abundant flora, is merely a 5-minute drive away (approximately 3-4 km). Here, residents can explore the charming historic old town with its flower-lined squares, bustling markets, and an array of exquisite dining and shopping options, alongside cultural landmarks like the impressive Orchidarium.

Furthermore, the lively Puerto Deportivo de Estepona marina, a hub for leisure, gastronomy, and nautical activities, is just a quick 3-minute drive (around 2-3 km). This proximity offers effortless access to fine restaurants, chic boutiques, and opportunities for boating, water sports, and vibrant evening entertainment. Estepona, nestled in the glorious region of Southern Spain, boasts a dynamic property market where frontline beach apartments are highly prized for their direct sea access, panoramic views, and integration within high-quality developments. This region is also celebrated for its championship golf courses and 21 km of picturesque coastline, catering to every lifestyle desire.
