Designed for discerning individuals who covet exclusivity, world-class golf at their doorstep, and serene privacy in a panoramic sanctuary, this residence transcends a mere home – it is a statement of elevated living, perfectly poised between mountains and the Mediterranean.

The Essence of La Cala Living: A Daily Symphony of Indulgence

Afternoons are for cherished moments with family and friends. As dusk paints the sky, gather at your bespoke Tiki bar, toasting sunsets and the freedom this life offers.

A Grand Welcome & Seamless Design

A long driveway guides you to an integrated two-car garage. Through glass walls, a private gymnasium offers a wellness space. An internal staircase ascends to the main living level, though an outdoor entrance also provides direct access. You are greeted by a double-height hallway, soaring to five meters, imbuing the space with grandeur and light, complete with a guest toilet.

Sophisticated Interiors with Panoramic Vistas

The heart of this home is an open-plan kitchen and living room, a masterpiece of contemporary design. Floor-to-ceiling sliding glass doors merge indoor comfort with magnificent outdoor panoramas, inviting natural light and stunning views of the valley, mountains, and fairways. Advanced safety glass windows, with integrated UV protection, safeguard furnishings and feature electric blinds. A captivating 1.8-meter electric fireplace creates an inviting focal point. The gourmet kitchen, centered around a substantial island, comfortably accommodates up to six guests. A flexible fourth bedroom offers potential for a sophisticated dining area or dedicated office space.

Private Retreats & Master Sanctuary

Ascending a few steps leads to the first private sleeping wing: two bedrooms and two bathrooms, one en-suite. One bedroom opens onto a charming terrace with direct garden access. A marble staircase guides you to the Master bedroom suite. This sanctuary boasts a spacious en-suite bathroom and a vast private terrace, offering unparalleled views of mountains and sunsets. This south-facing upper floor incorporates stronger UV protection, ensuring privacy from the golf course below while allowing uninterrupted enjoyment of spectacular vistas.

An Outdoor Oasis for Unforgettable Moments

The exterior spaces truly extend this villa's luxurious interior. The front garden features a 10 x 5-meter swimming pool, surrounded by an expansive lounge area, ideal for sunbathing. Lush tropical plants and majestic palm trees create an exotic, private ambiance. To the rear, a delightful grass area provides a verdant playground, complemented by a shaded breakfast corner.
