Overview:

Luxury Realty proudly introduces a remarkable detached villa in El Faro, Mijas. Offering unparalleled investment potential or flexible family living, this Costa del Sol property boasts two independent floors, maximizing privacy and income generation.

Independent Living, Endless Possibilities

The Upper Level: Self-Contained with Views

Accessed directly from street level, the upper floor features a self-contained apartment: two bedrooms, a full bathroom, and a fitted kitchen. A bright, enclosed terrace extends from the living room, offering serene views of the lush forest and the large swimming pool below. This independent unit is perfect for rentals, guest accommodation, or a private retreat.

The Lower Level: Refurbished Luxury & Spacious Comfort

The lower level, accessed via an external staircase, has undergone extensive, modern refurbishment. It features a brand-new, fully fitted and equipped kitchen and two newly installed, contemporary bathrooms. Four generous bedrooms include a spacious master suite with a large, luxurious en-suite. The open-plan living area and breakfast bar enjoy direct views of the sparkling swimming pool and manicured garden, ideal for family life and entertaining.

Strategic Investment & Personalization Potential

While the lower level is ready, the upper unit and exterior offer an exciting canvas for personalization. Necessary work, external painting, and general maintenance will restore and elevate the entire villa. This presents a unique opportunity for investors to enhance value and tailor the property, commanding strong rental returns. For large families, it provides flexible independent living zones within a single residence.
