Its enviable location ensures that the vibrant pulse of Estepona centre, the efficient bus station, and the comprehensive Carrefour supermarket are all within a comfortable, leisurely stroll, granting you effortless access to everything you desire – from charming local eateries to essential daily amenities. This is more than just a home; it's a gateway to the authentic and captivating Andalusian lifestyle, enveloped in the perpetual sunshine of the Costa del Sol.

Upon entering this magnificent residence, one immediately appreciates the thoughtful design and generous proportions, a distinct advantage afforded by its prime corner position. Boasting a significantly larger footprint than many standard units in the area, this apartment offers an expansive and wonderfully fluid layout. The heart of the home is an extended living area, a bright and inviting space where natural light floods through ample windows, creating an uplifting and serene atmosphere. The lounge, designed for both comfortable daily living and elegant entertaining, transitions seamlessly into a beautifully integrated glass-enclosed terrace. This versatile space, a true highlight, provides an additional reception area that can be enjoyed year-round, offering a protected haven for alfresco dining, a cozy reading nook, or a bright home office, all while still feeling connected to the captivating outdoor environment.

The apartment features two generously sized bedrooms, each conceived as a private sanctuary of comfort and tranquility. The master suite, in particular, offers ample space and promises restful nights, while the second bedroom provides ideal accommodation for guests or family. Complementing these are two elegantly appointed bathrooms, meticulously designed with modern fixtures and finishes, ensuring both functionality and a touch of spa-like luxury. Every detail within the interior has been considered to enhance the sense of spaciousness and light, from the choice of flooring to the subtle colour palette, all contributing to an atmosphere of refined sophistication that perfectly aligns with the Luxury Realty ethos.

However, the true pièce de résistance of this extraordinary property lies above: an awe-inspiring 100 m² private rooftop solarium. This expansive outdoor haven is an absolute dream for those who cherish open-air living and breathtaking vistas. From this elevated vantage point, you are treated to a sensational panorama that sweeps across the azure expanse of the Mediterranean Sea, stretches towards the majestic peaks of the Sierra Bermeja mountains, and encompasses the charming skyline of Estepona itself. Imagine hosting unforgettable gatherings under the stars, enjoying sun-drenched afternoons lounging by a potential private plunge pool or jacuzzi, or simply savouring a morning coffee as the sun rises over Africa. This incredible solarium offers limitless possibilities for outdoor entertaining, relaxation, and personal enjoyment, making it an exclusive oasis within your own home.

Further enhancing the convenience and appeal of this distinguished property is the inclusion of a covered outdoor parking space. This invaluable amenity ensures secure and hassle-free parking, a true luxury in a sought-after coastal location. The Punta Plata urbanisation itself is renowned for its meticulously maintained communal areas, lush gardens, and direct access to the pristine beach, fostering a sense of community and exclusivity that is highly coveted.
