Exceptional Design and Grand Scale

Conceived by the acclaimed architect Pablo Liev of Liev Rodriguez, whose signature designs grace prestigious locales from Spain to the Caribbean, this villa is a hallmark of his early brilliance in Alcaidesa. Every element speaks of masterful construction and an intuitive understanding of luxury. The property boasts a generous 1,547 m² plot, where approximately one-third is dedicated to meticulously crafted living spaces and expansive terraces, harmoniously blending with the natural surroundings. The visual allure of the property is crowned by an eye-catching infinity-style pool, gleaming like a precious jewel against the backdrop of the Mediterranean.

Functionality meets elegance in the property's layout. An expansive subterranean garage, meticulously designed, spans the entire footprint of the main villa. This practical space includes a discreet lavatory, a dedicated laundry area, and ample storage, with convenient internal steps leading directly to the kitchen and family areas, ensuring seamless daily transitions.

Interior Splendor and Bespoke Comfort

The heart of this thoughtfully designed family sanctuary is its fully equipped gourmet kitchen. Featuring a stylish island that effortlessly doubles as a breakfast bar, it invites culinary creativity and social gatherings. Beyond the kitchen, a variety of elegant dining areas, both indoors for intimate occasions and alfresco for grand entertaining, underscore the home’s commitment to hospitality. The residence is a haven of comfort year-round, equipped with charming wood burners for cooler evenings, efficient ceiling fans, state-of-the-art air conditioning units, and eco-friendly solar panels for hot water.

The interior architecture unfolds into distinct zones for relaxation and repose. Guests are welcomed into sophisticated sitting rooms, a dedicated study, and a tranquil library, each space crafted for quiet contemplation or lively conversation. A dedicated wing serves as the primary sleeping quarters, housing five exquisitely appointed double bedrooms. One benefits from its private en-suite, while the remaining two elegant bathrooms are thoughtfully shared between two bedrooms each, alongside an additional cloakroom on this level, providing convenience and privacy for all residents and guests.

Ascending to the upper level reveals a magnificent mezzanine, home to a grand drawing room complete with its own inviting wood burner. A further short climb leads to the principal living quarters, a truly private sanctuary. This floor is entirely dedicated to the owners, featuring a sophisticated office space, a generously proportioned walk-in wardrobe, and the opulent principal bedroom. The en-suite bathroom is a masterpiece of indulgence, offering a full-length jacuzzi bath for ultimate relaxation and an independent walk-in spa shower, promising a luxurious start or end to each day. From this level, a dedicated staircase ascends to a sprawling roof terrace, offering panoramic possibilities for enjoyment and further breathtaking views.

Exquisite Outdoor Living and Unrivaled Vistas

Embracing the quintessential Southern Spanish lifestyle, the villa masterfully blur the lines between indoor and outdoor living. A beautifully appointed summer kitchen, complete with a barbecue zone and a stylish bar, serves as the perfect bridge, embodying the vibrant culture of outdoor dining and socialising.
