Overview:

Opportunities of such grandeur and historical significance are truly once-in-a-lifetime. Imagine acquiring a magnificent, 250-year-old restored millhouse estate, steeped in Andalusian charm, offering not one, but four distinct homes, each gazing upon breathtaking panoramic sea views. This isn't merely a property; it's a living legacy, an emblem of luxury, and a canvas of endless possibilities for both an opulent lifestyle and a thriving business venture.

Welcome to Historic Molino, a rare and extraordinary estate nestled in the captivating hills of Mijas, Southern Spain. It's a place where time-honoured beauty, rich history, and exceptional opportunity intertwine seamlessly. Here, four elegantly interlinked houses gracefully cascade down the sun-drenched hillside, connected by an enchanting network of private patios, sun-drenched terraces, lush gardens, and expansive open spaces. Each vantage point offers a unique perspective of the Mediterranean, stretching boundlessly to the horizon.

An Exquisite Blend of Private Sanctuary and Business Potential

This meticulously restored estate presents remarkable versatility, catering to the most discerning of buyers. At its zenith lies a stunning private main residence, designed for ultimate comfort and elegance. Below, two distinct properties operate as fully licensed rural tourism houses, offering a superb income stream. Completing this unique ensemble is an additional charming bungalow, perfect for guests, staff, or a private retreat – all impeccably maintained and fully legalised under Spanish law.

The Main Residence: A Haven of Luxury (Building C)

Ascending to the highest point of the estate reveals the main residence, a testament to sophisticated design. Spanning approximately 362.8 m², this home features an expansive open-plan layout, framing unparalleled panoramic views that sweep across the sea. The lower floor unveils an indulgence suite, boasting a spectacular indoor pool, a serene sauna, and a versatile space – ideal as a state-of-the-art gym, a tranquil yoga studio, or a bespoke wellness room. This area seamlessly opens onto sun-kissed terraces, inviting alfresco living with magnificent wide-open vistas. With 2 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, this private dwelling promises comfort and exclusivity.

The Licensed Rural Tourism Houses: Boutique Hospitality (Buildings A & B)

Descending through the meticulously landscaped terraced patios, two exquisite self-contained rental houses await. Each possesses its own distinctive character and allure, and critically, each holds a current Casa Rural licence – a highly coveted and valuable asset. These charming properties share an inviting outdoor pool, forming an idyllic setting for discerning guests, a bespoke boutique tourism venture, or accommodating extended family and friends. Building A, the Guest House, spans approximately 215.5 m² with 3 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms. Building B, the Historic Mill itself, offers approximately 192.1 m² with 2 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. These properties represent an exceptional opportunity for sustainable income within the vibrant tourism market of Southern Spain.

The Independent Bungalow: A Private Retreat (Building D)

Tucked away in quiet seclusion, the delightful one-bedroom cottage offers approximately 43.1 m² of versatile space. Perfect for accommodating staff, providing additional guest lodging, or serving as a private sanctuary for reflection, this bungalow with its 1 bedroom and 1 bathroom adds another layer of flexibility and value to the estate.

Whether your dream is to cultivate a premier boutique hospitality business, host exclusive wellness retreats, or simply revel in a magnificent multi-generational estate for family and cherished friends, this property is uniquely equipped to fulfill every aspiration. All buildings are fully legalised and authorized for their designated uses, providing peace of mind and secure investment.
