The Property: A Harmonious Blend of Space, Comfort, and Elegance

Spanning an expansive 114 m² of thoughtfully designed living space, this apartment sets itself apart with its generous proportions and unique features. The layout has been masterfully conceived to maximize both guest comfort and rental efficiency, a critical balance for high-performing holiday accommodations. It proudly offers five spacious, individually appointed bedrooms, providing ample private retreats for larger groups or families, a significant advantage in the short-term rental market. Two well-appointed bathrooms further enhance guest convenience and privacy.

Adding an extraordinary dimension to urban living, this property features not one, but two highly coveted outdoor spaces: a large private terrace and an intimate interior patio. Such private outdoor havens are exceedingly rare within Málaga's historic centre, offering guests exclusive opportunities for alfresco dining, morning coffees under the Spanish sun, or tranquil evenings under the stars. These spaces significantly elevate the property's desirability and appeal, commanding higher rental yields and contributing to exceptional guest reviews.

Every detail within the apartment speaks of quality and foresight. Guests will enjoy year-round comfort thanks to the integrated central heating and air conditioning systems. Furthermore, a recent upgrade includes the installation of new Climalit double-glazed windows throughout.
