Estepona: The Heart of the New Golden Mile in Southern Spain

Nestled in the sun-drenched region of Southern Spain, Estepona has emerged as one of the most sought-after destinations on the Costa del Sol, often referred to as the "Garden of the Costa del Sol." Its charm lies in its authentic Andalusian character, combined with a sophisticated modern infrastructure and an increasingly affluent international community. Boasting beautiful blue-flag beaches, a picturesque marina, world-class golf courses, and a vibrant cultural scene, Estepona attracts both luxury tourism and long-term residents. The town benefits from excellent connectivity, superb amenities, and a progressive local government actively supporting economic growth and urban beautification. Investing here means positioning your business in a location synonymous with quality, lifestyle, and sustained demand.

Unrivaled Space and Sublime Views: The Property at a Glance

This exceptional commercial property spans an impressive total area of approximately 951 m². It comprises a generous 321 m² of interior commercial space, providing a substantial canvas for bespoke design and functionality. Complementing this interior expanse is an extraordinary private terrace measuring around 600 m². This vast outdoor area is arguably the property's crowning jewel, offering uninterrupted, south-facing panoramic views over the shimmering Mediterranean Sea and the captivating coastline. Imagine the possibilities: an exclusive dining experience under the stars, a serene wellness retreat overlooking the ocean, or an innovative corporate headquarters where inspiration flows as freely as the sea breeze. The sheer scale and prime orientation of this terrace elevate the property from merely commercial to an iconic destination.

The spacious interior, currently an open-plan layout, presents a remarkable blank canvas, ready to be transformed to suit a diverse range of high-end business concepts. Enhanced by excellent natural light and multiple strategic openings, the space promises an airy, inviting, and productive environment.
