Overview: This bright and spacious south facing apartment is located in the prestigious Princess Park urbanisation in Calahonda. It consists of 2 double bedrooms, one en suite, and a third single bedroom. These apartments are known for their generous sized rooms and plenty of internal storage space. It comes fully furnished and ready to move in, including one underground parking space. The panoramic views from the large terrace are of the surrounding countryside down to the sea beyond. Princess Park is a secure, gated community with several pools to choose from. There is a bus service within a short walk that takes you down to the coast. Also, there are several restaurants bars and a fully stocked supermarket within walking distance of the complex. The competitive selling price reflects the owner's desire for a quick sale. The property is available to view from Wednesday 9th September.
