A great location, lots of outdoor space, a lovely community and the opportunity to make it your own. Just a short walk from the beach, the property is set within a peaceful residential community with beautifully maintained communal gardens, swimming pools, tennis courts and padel facilities. The townhouse offers four bedrooms, two bathrooms and a guest toilet, with living spaces spread across different levels. The two bathrooms have been nicely renovated, giving the property a lovely modern starting point. The rest of the interior could still use some love. One of its nicest features is the variety of outdoor areas. On the lower level, a private garden area provides direct access to the communal gardens and swimming pool. The community itself is quiet and welcoming, with a pleasant neighbourhood atmosphere. Parking is possible directly in front of the property, and there may even be an opportunity to create a private garage underneath the house, subject to the necessary technical checks and approvals. You're within walking distance of the Mediterranean, with beach restaurants and local amenities nearby. There's a Greek restaurant right next to the community. You're close to Cancelada, with its local shops, cafés and restaurants, while Estepona, San Pedro de Alcántara and Puerto Banús are all within easy reach.
