Close to everything, but in a large, prívate independent finca. The land has two Wells and lots of fruit trees, the house is an older house that needs complete renovation, but with the right person this can shine as a beautiful home. There are several possibilities here and the soil is very rich, also is there in the area many horses, people that like mountainbiking or hiking or driving buggies will find this a real treasure, everything is possible in this area and of course growing your own food and making it eco friendly and 100% independent is an option here, think of solar panels or wind energy.
