Its shape is an almost perfect rectangle, and it is very flat, meaning its more than 2000 square meters are 100% usable, allowing you to build the house of your dreams with the orientation you like best. It features 3 tall palm trees, located in the area that must remain free of construction, which provide poise and elegance to the land, as well as some cork oaks with their unique shapes. The perimeter wall is already built around the entire property, it has a vehicle access gate, and the electrical and water connection installations are already completed, although the services have not yet been contracted.
